Bloomdale

Bloomdale Eyewear is an independent and progressive eyewear label based in the Netherlands. We design women's and men's glasses according to the latest trends in cheerful and eye-catching colours with original shapes and fine details. Glasses that are wearable for a wide audience, but which are also slightly different.

Our models are made of high-quality and light materials, which ensures comfortable and long wearing pleasure. For example, we mainly use Mazzucchelli acetate from Italy, Japanese stainless steel with a nickel-free coating and soft silicone nose pads from Germany.
